FOOD AND BEVERAGE

3: Food and Beverage

Food and Beverage Philosophy

Developed by our Executive Chef, Gavin Robertson, in collaboration with leading nutritional experts at the South Australian Health and Medical Research Institute (SAHMRI), the University of Adelaide and CSIRO Health and Biosecurity, in our current menu, nature is the hero. It reveals dishes that are brimming with nutrient-dense, whole foods sourced from local, sustainable environments. This includes a wonderful range of indigenous ingredients, all native to Australia. Our dedicated, in-house chefs use these ingredients to make creative, restaurant-quality dishes that are vibrant in colour and bursting with flavour. In addition, to coincide with the increasing popularity of 'plant based' cuisine, our menu features an exclusive series of plant-based dishes.

As always, our commitment remains to delivering our guests a 'Taste of South Australia'. We're blessed to have an abundance of incredible, local produce, and all of our wines from South Australia. This menu also reflects our ongoing commitment to sustainability – ensuring that, as much as possible, ingredients have been responsibly farmed, sustainably produced and ethically sourced.

As a result, we have a wide range of food and beverage options for you to choose from to truly impress your attendees.

It is mandatory for an ACC Exhibition Floor Manager to be present for the duration of the exhibition move in and move out periods of your event. The Exhibition Floor Manager will act as a liaison between all parties involved with the exhibition to facilitate a smooth move in and move out for your event.

The duration of these shifts will be based on the timings for your event provided by you on your Exhibition Details form and may be adjusted based on actual times as deemed appropriate by the ACC. Charges will apply.

Exhibition Floorplans

The ACC does not design floorplans for exhibitions. It is recommended that the services of a specialised exhibition contractor be appointed to do this.

Every floorplan and subsequent revision must be submitted to the ACC for approval as an AutoCAD dwg file, a minimum of seven (7) days prior to the commencement of your event.

As a part of the approval process, considerations will include but are not limited to, delegate numbers, operational requirements, access to amenities and access to emergency facilities.

It is important that you send the ACC Exhibition Handbook to all of your exhibitors. This handbook will be provided to you by your Exhibition Coordinator, and will assist in ensuring that statutory requirements are met and will answer many of the queries that may arise, saving you the organiser, a great deal of time and effort. Should you wish to send out your own exhibitor manual, it is a requirement that it is sent out in conjunction with the ACC Exhibition Handbook.

This service is normally provided by a specialist exhibition company (Principal Contractor). Should you require contact details for these companies please contact the Exhibition Services Department.

Power Connection and Consumption

Electrical power requirements within an exhibition is required to be connected by the organiser's appointed contractor. The organiser is responsible for ensuring that all installations meet legislative requirements, that all appliances are tested and tagged and for the maintenance of equipment during the event. An approximate cost for the use of power will be based on each exhibitor using the equivalent of one single phase outlet which will be detailed in your Exhibition Services Summary. The exhibition contractor is required to provide the ACC with a detailed list of the outlets used during your exhibition and the cost will be adjusted accordingly post event.

The ACC does not meter power consumption. Actual charges for electrical power are based on the number of outlets used during the event. It is therefore in your interest to ensure that your contractor uses the power outlets optimally.

All items being sent to the ACC via the North Terrace Loading Dock must have attached the appropriate delivery label. These delivery labels will be sent to you by your Event Planner. Special attention should be paid to these labels, as timeframes for deliveries vary according to the goods being delivered.

There are two (2) different types of delivery labels used at the ACC for event related deliveries:

- Exhibitor delivery label ('E' label); and
- Organiser delivery label ('O' label)

As an organiser, you will be sent both labels. The organiser label is to be used for your goods and the exhibitor label is to be sent to all your exhibitors wishing to send goods to the ACC.

Goods are to be sent as follows:

Wine and all beverages that are to be used for events (identified with an 'O' label) must be sent to the ACC no later than seven (7) days prior to your event. You must identify on these labels if the beverages are to be refrigerated.

Where the use of a naked flame or material of a highly flammable nature is intended for use within the ACC (including, but not limited to, fireworks and pyro-technics), permission to use such materials must be sought in writing from the ACC no less than fourteen (14) days prior to occupancy.

Hazard and Risk Identification

ACC, event organisers, and contractors have a legal obligation to ensure a safe environment for workers, contractors, exhibitors, delegates and visitors. In preparation for an event, ACC provides and requires event organisers to complete a Venue Hirer Hazard Identification Form (CSHR-924). This requirement is designed to identify any potential hazards that may affect the safety of your event and to ensure that control measures are in place to eliminate or to reduce the risk to acceptable levels.

The completed form is to be returned to the ACC Event Planning Manager not less than two weeks prior to the commencement of your event. ACC will determine what (if any) additional risk control measures are required and will notify you.

Hazard and Incident Reporting

The event organiser, their contractor and workers must immediately inform an ACC Security Officer or an ACC staff member of any hazards that have the potential to cause harm, and all incidents that have caused harm to a person or damage to property.

ACC will arrange to document any hazard, unsafe work practice or incident, and ACC management will take the appropriate actions to eliminate or reduce the hazard.

Insurance

The ACC maintains Public Liability and Property Damage policies, however:

- Hirers/Organisers are financially responsible for any injury or damage to property incurred during the event. It is therefore necessary for Hirers/Organisers to arrange their own insurance cover for property damage and public liability, where it could be considered their liability. It is recommended that a minimum $20 million cover is held per event.
- Exhibitors and Hirers/Organisers must provide a copy of their insurance Certificate of Currency as proof of public liability insurance upon request.
- It is recommended that all exhibitors have a minimum of $10 million of public liability cover.
- It is the Hirer/Organiser's responsibility that these insurance requirements are made known to all exhibitors/appointed contractors and that it is the responsibility of those persons bringing equipment, fittings or materials into the ACC to insure themselves. The person responsible for bringing any item into the ACC that causes damage to the ACC or injury or damage to any other property or person, either directly or indirectly, will be held responsible for that damage or injury. The Hirer of the venue is responsible for all costs incurred by their agents or subcontractors.
